

All That Chas

3 pitch 60 m bolted sport route on Whiteman's Crag above Canmore developed by Bob Milko as a tribute to Chas Yonge who passed away in January and who was a great friend to many Bow Valley Climbers and beyond. It is 3 short pitches between Sharknado and Hot Fuzz on Whiteman Crag above Canmore.

First ascent July 17 2020 by Bob Milko and Chris Perry

P.1 5.9 20m. 8 boltsstart 5 meters uphill from Hot fuzz on Whiteman's Crag on the slab just left of a prominent white streak. Follow bolts up the slab going straight up over a bulge and then traverse across a ledge stepping across to a short face with 2 bolts to the 2 ring anchor.

P.2 5.10b 25 m. 10 bolts....straight up from the anchor through 2 small overhangs and then up a fairly sustained face to a 2 ring anchor. avoid using holds in the loose rock band on the left

P.3 5.8 15 m. 5 bolts...traverse left for 2 meters and straight up the steep slab exiting with a fun and easy layback

Rappel all three stations to avoid going over the loose rock band

60m rope and 10 draws including 1 alpine draw
