↑ 2m up from creek

Located on south-facing slabs in the Mt. Lorette descent gully.

Either park at the Stoney Day Use area near Kananaskis Village and walk/bike north to the gully or if the river is low enough, park along Highway 40 directly across from the drainage and wade the river. Head straight for the drainage, picking up a trail on the left side of the dry creek bed higher up.

Route is on the right at 1700m elevation 50 minutes from the river.

Gear: 60m rope
10 draws
2 anchor sets

Descent: Rap with 60m rope
